. Congratulations on becoming a new parent! If you've found yourself saying I wish I had known, or Next time I'll, then this book is for you. I've been there and done that. This book is composed of one hundred and one pieces of practical advice for new parents just like you. Each entry is based on a humorous event that I've experienced with my own baby. Some of the tips you'll learn are how to get free formula, how to get your baby to eat vegetables, and how to change a diaper on an airplane. Humorous and truthful, 101 Things I Wish I Had Known About Raising a Baby is full of advice every new parent needs. Author Bio: Oona Elisabeth Cammilleri is a mother of two children—a toddler and a new baby. She spends her days as a full-time cook, nurse, teacher, accountant, organizer, schedule-manager, personal shopper, house cleaner, stylist, chauffeur, crisis management and conflict resolution specialist, life skills trainer, safety expert, entrepreneur, diaper technician, social planner,...
