Not illustrated. 1904 Excerpt: . . . of Mary, the widow of Governor Thomas Prentice, has long been a disputed question, and it will be very gratifying to his numerous descendants to learn that Miss E. F. Elliot, of Somerville, Mass. , has discovered conclusive documentary evidence that Mary, the widow of Thomas Howes of Yarmouth, afterwards married Governor Prentice and survived him. Governor Prentice, therefore, had at least three wives, Patience Brewster, the daughter of Elder William Brewster, Mary Collier, the daughter of William Collier, of Duxbury, and Mary, the widow of Thomas Howes of Yarmouth. There are also other records which cannot be satisfactorily explained except on the supposition that there was still another marriage, prior to the marriage to Mary (--) Howes. Miss Elliot is preparing the evidence of the marriage to the widow of Thomas Howes for publication in our July number. Answer To Query. 39. Pratt. The wife...
