

Ajuma

By Davis Tyler

Gentleman Tree, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 213 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Ajuma consists of a memoir and three short stories by Tyler Davis. Favors for Neighbors is the story of how a volunteer organization by the same name was started. Tyler returned from teaching overseas with the aim to work as a volunteer for the summer. The problem was he couldn't find an organization he felt passionate about so he wrote his local paper informing the community that he had started his own, Favors for Neighbors: Hey neighbors: My high school community service teacher at Winona Senior High, John Rugeburg, once told us that doing a little bit of good is better than nothing. I remembered those words for years, but I can't say I've followed them as much as I should have. I just returned from overseas and I found myself in Winona for the summer. I have no commitments until August. I wanted to volunteer my time to help others. The problem is I'm restless. I don't think I can pick just one kind of service, so I want you...
