Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Brief Notices of a Small Number of the Shakespeare Rarities That Are Preserved in the Rustic The engraving on the right is a proof copy of the Droeshout portrait of 1623, and is the only likeness of Shakespeare in existence which has come down to us in an original unaltered state. No other copy of the engraving in this reliable state has yet been discovered, the only ones in all other libraries being those taken from a retouched plate, an example of an impression of which will be seen on the left. The latter is one of the only three impressions known of the title-page of the edition of 1632 before the spelling of the word coppies was altered, a circumstance which, although apparently trivial, is of value as showing that it includes one of the earliest impressions from the plate after it had been used for the first folio. The following observations upon this proof-engraving are from the pen of the late F. W. Fairholt, F.S.A., - the portrait in this state of the...
