Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Our Presidential Candidates and Political Compendium: Also Containing Lives of the Candidates for Vice-President-the Proceedings of the Three National Conventions-the Three Platforms and the Three Letters of Acceptance We are on the eve of another Presidential Election and the passions, prejudices, favoritism and enthusiasm of the masses, are beginning to be exercised and exhibited in a thousand forms. This is natural, and perhaps not to be condemned if properly controlled, kept within reasonable bounds, and exercised in a just and honorable manner. Every citizen should act honestly and conscientiously after having thoroughly examined the subject matter, in every possible light, and from different standpoints. There are three political parties in our country, and each at its National Convention nominated a candidate for the Presidency. Every party has its great and good men, and he who does the most for the preservation and welfare of his country, should be considered the greatest and best. Men make positions; positions don t make men. Honorable, enterprising, intelligent and resolute persons, out of fragments and bits of opportunities, will oftentimes march onward to honor and renown. As political parties, we are fortunate in having now in nomination for the highest office in the gift of the people the three most popular men of their respective parties, and we may say their recognized leaders; men, all of whom have carved, with their own swords, their name imperishably on the facade of the republic; men, whose military and political careers have been distinguished by marked ability, political sagacity and executive force.
