

Fear of the Dark: Exorcising the Ghosts of Racism Which Haunted My Family

By Francis Megahy

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 230 x 154 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Our identity, our self-image, is built up through our childhood, our youth, into a mosaic of all we have learned about the world, about ourselves and our position in it. But what if a key part part of that information suddenly turns out to be false? What if, for instance, one of our parents turns out not to be the person we thought they were, but someone else altogether? I always thought that my father was a Canadian, of Irish descent. But in my middle age, long after he had been taken from the world by a car accident, and after my mother had died, I made the astonishing discovery that he was in fact not Canadian at all, that his entire life story as I and my mother and her family understood it, was a fabrication, a lie, that he was from the Caribbean, and that his real ancestry was African. Black. You may ask, didn t you know your father? In a literal sense, of course I did. But in more existential terms...
