

The Brown Fairy Book

By Andrew Lang

1st World Library - Literary Society. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Hardcover. 364 pages. Dimensions: 8.6in. x 5.8in. x 1.3in. The stories in this Fairy Book come from all quarters of the world. For example, the adventures of Ball-Carrier and the Bad One are told by Red Indian grandmothers to Red Indian children who never go to school, nor see pen and ink. The Bunyip is known to even more uneducated little ones, running about with no clothes at all in the bush, in Australia. You may see photographs of these merry little black fellows before their troubles begin, in Northern Races of Central Australia, by Messrs. Spencer and Gillen. They have no lessons except in tracking and catching birds, beasts, fishes, lizards, and snakes, all of which they eat. But when they grow up to be big boys and girls, they are cruelly cut about with stone knives and frightened with sham bogies all for their good their parents say and I think they would rather go to school, if they had their choice, and take their chance of being birched and bullied. However, many boys might think it better fun to begin to learn hunting as soon as they can...

Reviews

I actually started looking over this publication. It really is rally interesting through studying period. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
